SUIT BROUGHT

To Test Constitutionality Of Act Creating McCreary County.

George A. Bell, a resident of the new county of McCreary, created out of portions of Pulaski, Whitley and Wayne counties, has filed suit in the Wayne circuit court, to test the constitutionality of the act making McCreary county. The petition alleges that the new county contains but 9,000 population, or 3,000 more less than the required number to make it constitutional. It also alleges that the territory embraced contains less than 400 square miles, and that one of the boundary lines passes closer than ten miles to Williamsburg, county seat of Whitley county.

Eight Inches of Snow.

Geneva, Switzerland, July 22.—Snow fell heavy all over the Alps last night. It lies to a depth of eight inches on the six principal passes. A number of American motorists are snowbound.

Famous Apple Tree.

Washington, July 22.—The famous old apple tree, near Appomattox Courthouse, Virginia, under which Lee surrendered to Grant, long since carried away piece by piece by souvenir hunters, is to be replaced by a tree planted by Governor Woodrow Wilson. Col. George A. Arms, U. S. A., owner of the Appomattox farm, has returned to this city from a visit to Governor Wilson at Seagr. with the news.

Frightful Polar Winds

blow with terrific force at the far north and play havoc with the skin, causing red, rough or sore chapped hands and lips, that need Bucklen's Arnica Salve to heal them. It makes the skin soft and smooth. Unrivalled for cold-sores, also burns, boils, sores, ulcers, cuts, bruises and piles. Only 25 cents at all druggists.
